Background

She studied law and administration at the University of Wrocław, from which she graduated with excellent grades, as well as law at the University of Vienna.

Joanna Dudek has been a lawyer in the German Desk department of the law firm SDZLEGAL Schindhelm since September 2023.

From 2015 to 2017, she served her training as an attorney-at-law at the Regional Bar Association in Wrocław.

She gained her professional experience in international law firms in Poland and Austria, as well as during her judicial training in Vienna.

Expertise

She advises foreign and local entrepreneurs on corporate matters, commercial contracts and resolving cross-border disputes, as well as on labour law issues.

Joanna Dudek has experience in providing day-to-day legal services to entrepreneurs engaged in production and services, in particular companies within international capital groups, in the field of civil law, private international law and companies law. She supports foreign entrepreneurs both at the stage of establishing and expanding their business activities.
