Background

Marta Ignasiak is a tax advisor at SDZLEGAL SCHINDHELM. She cooperates with our Law Firm from October 2017, supporting clients and lawyers in the selection of effective legal and tax solutions.

Marta Ignasiak graduated from the Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, Faculty of Law and Administration, and under the LLP Erasmus she studied at Universität Potsdam. She completed also postgraduate studies on accounting at Academy of Finance in Warsaw.

She was admitted as a certified tax advisor in 2009 but has been gaining experience in tax advisory from 2004. At that time she worked for reputable law firms and international corporations dealing with tax advisory, successfully merging knowledge of law, taxes and accounting.

Expertise

Marta Ignasiak was admitted as a certified tax advisor in 2009. She advises domestic and foreign companies on tax law (in the broad sense of the term) as well as on tax proceedings, drafting contracts or effective reorganization of the activities or their part. She is a member of the corporate and M&A department at SDZLEGAL SCHINDHELM.

Marta Ignasiak prepares opinions concerning tax implications of the activities planned by entrepreneurs and advises on the choice of most effective solutions. She holds trainings on tax law and fiscal criminal liability.

Marta Ignasiak has wide experience in tax audits carried out at the request of investors and companies involved. She provides ongoing support for accounting and tax departments in the discharge of duties imposed, offering knowledge of the practical approach and current courts' and administrative rulings. She represents taxpayers, paying agents and tax collectors before tax administration and administrative courts in cases concerning tax liabilities.

She is an author of numerous press publications and co-author of commentaries concerning Value Added Tax.
