Background

Ria Kucera joined SAXINGER's office in Vienna in 2011, as of March 2015 as an Attorney-at-Law.

After graduating at the University of Vienna (title "Mag. iur.", 2009), Ria absolved her legal clerkship within the courts in the district of the Vienna Higher Regional Court (District Court Floridsdorf and Regional Court Korneuburg). Subsequently, Ria worked as of 2010 as an associate in an international law firm in Vienna and joined the domestic and international Dispute Resolution Team of SAXINGER in Vienna as of 2011. Ria is especially experienced in the representation of clients in domestic and international arbitration in German or English as well as the representation in litigation proceedings in all matters relating to commercial law.

In 2013, Ria successfully passed the Austrian Bar Examen and is admitted to the Viennese bar association since March 2015.

Ria is currently finishing her studies "International Dispute Resolution" at the Danube-University in Krems (post-graduate study).

Ria is member of the Austrian Arbitration Association (ArbAut/YAAP), the Deutschen Instituts für Schiedsgerichtsbarkeit (DIS 40) und the Association Suisse de l'Arbitrage (ASA below 40).

Expertise

Ria Kucera advises and represents domestic and foreign companies and individuals in all matters relating to commercial law, especially in matters related to civil law, contract law, company law and tenancy law as well as labour law.

Ria Kucera is member of the international Dispute Resolution Team of SAXINGER and is due to her almost 10 years lasting career in Dispute Resolution especially experienced in the representation of clients in domestic and international arbitration proceedings (under the rules of VIAC, ICC and Ad Hoc) as well as in litigation.
