

Doing business in China

Wrocław – October 7th 2013

SDZLEGAL SCHINDHELM has the pleasure to invite you to a seminar „Doing business in China”. The seminar shall take place on October 7th in Wrocław.

During the seminar we will present you formal and legal aspects of conducting business activity in China. We will also discuss the informal side of business relations, indicating in particular cultural customs and negotiation practices.

Seminar is addressed to the companies that plan or already begun their expansion within this region of Asia. The meeting will constitute not only an opportunity to exchange experience in relations with contractors from China but also a chance to broaden practical knowledge within this scope. The meeting will be conducted by Attorney, Mr. Raymond Kok from the Schindhelm office in Shanghai. The language of the seminar is English
